

END MY WAIT

for comprehensive services

END THE WAIT for Benjamin

- I currently live in Denver with my parents.
- I've been waiting for comprehensive disability services for 8 years.
- My parents would have some respite if there was no waitlist. My mom could work part time and I would have social stimulation beyond my family.
- I would like to feel good, be healthy and be with people who love and appreciate me for who I am!

“It would be nice to have some other people spend time with me outside of my family and day program. To have a choice of quality, committed and dependable people, respected for the work they do, is essential for my future and that of my friends who are also differently-abled. Plus—I don't want to always live with my parents!!”

-Benjamin
